

BIOGRAPHY

KANSAS ARMY NATIONAL GUARD

Lt. COL Scott T. Henry

Lt. Colonel Scott T. Henry currently serves as the Deputy Commander of the 235th Regiment, Salina, Kansas. Previous assignments include J2 Senior Intelligence Office, Joint Forces Headquarters; Work Force Support Branch Chief, Joint Forces Headquarter; Commander, 73rd Civil Support Team (Weapons of Mass Destruction); Deputy Commander, 73rd Civil Support Team (Weapons of Mass Destruction); Commander, 35th Military Police Company, 35th Division; He has also served in various staff positions to include Intelligence Collection Manager, G-2, 35th Division Fort Leavenworth.

Lt. Col. Henry deployed for National Intelligence Agency, Central Command Forward Headquarters, DOHA, QATAR, where he performed Intelligence Missions and managed a forward logistics site.

Lt. Col. Henry enlisted in the Army in 1984, and served as a Military Policeman in Leavenworth. He earned a commission through the Western Illinois University ROTC program in 1992. His military education includes the Military Intelligence, Officer Basic and Advanced Courses at Fort Huachuca, Arizona. He attended the Combined Arms and Services Staff School (CAS3) and Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, for the Intermediate Level Education and various courses in incident management.

Henry's awards include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, Army Commendation Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, Air Force Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, Nation Defense Service Medal with 2 Oak Leaf Clusters, Global War on Terrorism Service Medal.

His civilian education includes a Bachelor of Science in Law Enforcement Administration from Western Illinois University, a Master of Arts in Management and Leadership from Webster University.

Henry is married with two children and resides in Salina, Kansas.